This is a floor plan for Suite 108, drawn on a light blue grid background. The suite is a large, irregularly shaped room with yellow walls and a thick yellow border representing the walls. The room is divided into three main sections by yellow walls. The top-left section is a large open area. The bottom-left section is a smaller rectangular area. The right section is a large rectangular area. There are three doorways, each marked with a small black rectangle and a curved purple line indicating the door's swing. The first doorway is on the top-left wall, swinging outwards. The second doorway is on the bottom-left wall, swinging inwards. The third doorway is on the right wall, swinging inwards. The text 'Suite 108' is written in blue in the top-left section.
